Beijing, Xian, Yangtze River and Shanghai

Embark on an enthralling journey through China, starting in Beijing—a city where history whispers through ancient monuments. Stroll through the vast expanses of the Forbidden City, conquer the Great Wall's storied pathways, and find serenity amidst the lush landscapes of the Summer Palace.

Head to Xi'an, the gateway to ancient China. Here, the enigmatic Terracotta Army stands as a testament to imperial might. Cycle along the majestic city walls and soak in the atmosphere of the bustling Muslim Quarter, where East meets West in an explosion of flavors and history.

Then, set sail on a Yangtze River Cruise, a soul-stirring journey through China's breathtaking heartland. Witness the dramatic vistas of the Three Gorges and visit the mist-shrouded Shennong Stream, where tranquil waters weave stories of bygone eras.

Conclude your adventure in Shanghai, a city where glittering skylines meet historic charm. The Bund, with its sweeping views, promises an unforgettable evening, while the vibrant neighborhoods of the French Concession invite exploration and wonder.

This itinerary offers a tapestry of China's diverse landscapes and rich heritage, crafting memories that truly move you.
