2024 Khiva: Where Ancient Marvels Unfold. UNESCO Heritage. Itinerary

Day 1 Tashkent - Khiva.

Khiva stands as one of Uzbekistan's oldest cities, its foundations laid more than two millennia ago. Within its borders lies the sole medieval fortress, Ichan-Kala, where the past comes to life. Encircled by formidable city walls, this citadel transforms into an Eastern wonderland, where every edifice stands as an architectural masterpiece and a separate attraction. What's truly astonishing is that amidst this historical treasure trove, life continues to thrive, as the city remains home to residents who contribute to its unique character.

Khiva exudes an aura of the extraordinary, where cuisine, people, language, and architecture transport you to an era long past. The streets, meticulously paved with stone, mirror a chessboard, while minarets, madrasa domes, and mosque spires grace the skyline at every turn. Even contemporary constructions pay homage to the antiquity that permeates this captivating city.

Your two-day journey in Khiva begins with a visit to the remarkable Islam Hoja Minaret & Medressa. Marvel at the intricate details and architectural grandeur of this historic site. Explore the Juma Mosque, famous for its unique wooden columns and an exceptional prayer hall. Savor a delectable local meal at a nearby restaurant, experiencing the flavors of Khorezmian cuisine.

Discover the opulent Tosh-Hovli Palace, offering a glimpse into the luxurious lifestyle of Khivan royalty. Step into the Kunya Ark, an ancient fortress that unfolds the city's vibrant history and culture.

Day 2 Khiva - UNESCO Heritage.

Admire the distinctive Kalta Minor Minaret, an architectural wonder and an emblem of Khiva's ambitious past.

Explore the Muhammad Rahim-khan Medressa, a splendid Islamic school adorned with intricate tilework and rich history.

Visit the Muhammad Amin-khan Medressa, famous for its turquoise dome and exquisite artistic features. For those interested, an optional Khorezmian cuisine cooking class awaits, allowing you to master the art of preparing traditional local dishes.

As your two-day tour concludes, depart from Khiva with cherished memories of its UNESCO treasures, architectural marvels, and culinary delights.

Day 3 Tour ends in Tashkent

You'll have a breakfast in the morning, marking the conclusion of your adventure. Following breakfast today, your tour officially ends
